JUDGMENT HAS BEEN ENTERED

In Smith & Lewis v. Territory Stables Co.—Two Women Ask Alimony.

Judge De Bolt yesterday signed judgment in favor of William O. Smith and A. Lewis Jr. against Territory Stables Co., Ltd., for a total amount of $1250.75, including attorney's commission and costs. The Bank of Hawaii, Ltd., garnishee, is ordered to pay into court $378.62, being the defendant's credit in its hands at the time of service of garnishment.

FAILURE TO PROVIDE.
Hallaka Lum Fai brings a libel in divorce against Lum Fai, to whom she was married on April 19, 1905. She alleges that he has violated his marriage vows, in particular in that he has failed, since September 2, 1905, to provide suitable maintenance for her. She says he is a butcher by trade and, as she is informed, has an income of $50 a month. Besides an absolute divorce she prays for permanent alimony and, pending a decision, that libel be ordered to pay her court costs, an attorney's fee and $10 a week alimony.

FLINT DIVORCE CASE.
Daisy Flint, who has retained S. F. Chillingworth as her attorney, prays that Harry Flint, suing her for divorce, be compelled to pay her $5 a week as temporary alimony and $50 attorney's fee. In her affidavit she says "that she has been for some months without assistance or support of her husband, and is wholly destitute of means of support or money to procure legal assistance; that she has truthfully stated the facts of her case to an attorney, and that he assures her that she has a good and legal defense to said libel."

MINOR ATTAINS MAJORITY.
Judge De Bolt has discharged Maria K. Ena as guardian of Anna Della Ena, a minor who has come of age. The sole property of the ward consists of an interest in the estate of her late father, John Ena, and that estate not having been distributed no part of it has come into the hands of the guardian.

SUIT AGAINST OAHU.
Geo. A. Davis for plaintiff has filed a joinder in demurrer in the suit of Mary Costa against the County of Oahu, a corporation, saying the complaint is good in substance.

WORK LAID OUT.
Jury waived cases have been set for trial in all of September and the first week of October.

WITNESSES OF COOK'S DEATH

Editor Friend:—An interesting testimony is given in the Sydney Morning Herald of June 26, by one Captain Samuel Charles, who in March, 1850, interviewed at Kealakekua an aged man who had witnessed the death of Capt. James Cook, seventy-one years previous.

This is especially interesting to myself, because in my childhood, while living at Kailua, I was familiarly acquainted with the aged Kekupohi, who stood close to Cook when he fell. She was then a youthful wife of the King Kalaipuu, or "Terrebooa," whom Cook had arrogantly arrested, and was leading by the hand to his boat, intending to detain him as a hostage on board of his ship, until satisfaction should be given for the theft of a boat. The exasperated chiefs killed Cook at the water's edge.

I often saw the spot when a child, and was born in a house twenty rods north thereof in February, 1827. Kekupohi lived not far from the Bishop house in Kailua, and only a short distance south from the stone church, which was built in 1836, the year in which the Bishops removed to Ewa, Oahu. I was then nine years old, and have a more distinct recollection of Kekupohi than of perhaps any other Hawaiian of Kailua.

She must then have been nearly eighty years of age, but was not very infirm. Her face was to a child, a rather pleasant and comely one. I have the strongest impression of a certain beauty in the fine wrinkles which covered the whole of her features.

All the facts relating to the death of Capt. Cook were carefully and thoroughly investigated by the earlier missionaries, while many vigorous and intelligent natives were still surviving who were eye-witnesses. Those facts are well summed up in Alexander's History, and accord substantially with the journals of Ledyards and Dr. Ellis. Messrs. Thurston, Ruggles and Bishop lived near the spot, and were all extremely intimate with the native people.

The chief and governing fact in that most singular series of incidents, was the people's worshiping of Capt. Cook as their God Lono, and consecrating to him a heiau, or temple.

One of my own most impressive recollections of Kailua is that of four huge timber idols erected on a heiau immediately seaward of Kamehameha's old house. They were probably spared from the universal destruction of idols in 1819, out of reverence to the departed king's memory. They were of the most hideous type. I have heard that later, Governor Kuakini fell away so far as to offer them worship, for which Father Thurston valiantly rebuked the formidable chieftain and brought him to repentance.

S. E. BISHOP.

TO MACADAMIZE OVER THE PALI

Important Link in the Island Belt Road to Be Improved.

The road down the Koolau side of the Pali is to be macadamized. This important link in the belt road around the island is to be made a winter road as well as a summer road. The work will probably begin this month.

County Engineer Gere returned yesterday afternoon from the other side of the Pali, where he had been looking over road matters. One of the matters that engaged his attention was the preparation to renew the bridge near Waimanalo which was swept away some time ago by a freshet. Work on a new bridge at this point, the foot of Waimanalo Hill, will begin at once.

The other matter to engage his attention was to put the rock crusher near Heela in order, in preparation for the work of macadamizing the Koolau portion of the Pali road. The crusher is located about half way between Heela and the foot of the Pali and not far from the Japanese vegetable gardens. It has never been actually set up and put in operation. This will be done at once, and the quarry whence the stone for the macadam is to be procured is to be opened up. All this will be done this month.

The macadamizing will begin at the foot of the Pali so as to give a good road all the time over which to haul the macadam material. Engineer Gere expects to have the worst part of the road completed before the heavy rains of the winter set in, in January.

THE DOCTOR AWAY FROM HOME WHEN MOST NEEDED.

People are often very much disappointed to find that their family physician is away from home when they most need his services. Diseases like cramp, colic and diarrhoea require prompt treatment, and in many instances prove fatal before medicine can be procured or a physician summoned. The right way is to keep at hand a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. No physician can prescribe a better medicine for these diseases. Sold by all dealers. CUSTOMS EXAMINATIONS.

A competitive examination under the rules of the U. S. Civil Service Commission, of applicants for the grades of third grade customs night inspectors, Honolulu, inspectress, Honolulu, in the classified customs service, in this city, will be held at High School building, Emma street, on the 17th day of August, 1907, commencing at 9 o'clock a. m.

Applications for this examination must be made on United States Civil Service Commission blanks, Form No. 101. Such blanks can be obtained from the undersigned.

Applications will not be accepted unless received by the board by the hour of closing business on August 16th, 1907. Therefore all persons desiring examination should secure blanks and fill them out at once, in order to allow time for any necessary corrections.

YOU NEVER KNOW THE MOMENT WHEN THIS INFORMATION MAY PROVE OF INFINITE VALUE.

It is worth considerable to any citizen of Honolulu to know how to be cured of painful, annoying and itching piles. Know then that Doan's Ointment is a positive remedy for all itching of the skin, for piles, eczema, etc. One application relieves and soothes. Read this testimony of its merit:

W. N. Day of 1131 Sixth street, Petaluma, Calif., says: "Doan's Ointment is the best remedy I ever tried and it is well worth recommending. I had a bad case of itching piles and suffered for eight or ten years. I used many medicines, but seemed to get worse as time went on. I heard of Doan's Ointment and procured a box. It cured me and I cannot say enough in praise of the remedy."
